Hon. Cassius M. Clay, Jr., is ill at Ashland. He was taken sick at Salersville ten days ago, while canvassing the Big Sandy counties.

W. M. Stodghill and Miss Beattie Moore, a couple of Danville society people, eloped and married at the Grand Hotel, Cincinnati.

Bishop McNamee was lecturing at Altoona, Pa., last week; but no one stood about the doors to take down the names of those who went to hear him.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Charles Hermon of Chillicothe, O., Saturday morning, a fine daughter. Mrs. Hermon was formerly Miss Mamie Niland of this city.

William Humphrey's slave defeated John Wheatley's nine Saturday for the third time by a score of 15 to 14. Batteries—Slater and Mundy; Wheatley and Green.

The gross earnings of the L. and N. for the second week in October were $418,910, an increase of $64,675 over 1893, but a decrease of $40,000 as compared with the same week in 1892.

Eight men, who were dismissed from the New York Police force on account of charges made before the Lexow Committee, have been arrested upon warrants based on the evidence thus furnished.

David L. Renaker, a widower of 78, one of the richest farmers and stock dealers in Harrison county who owns over 1,000 acres, was quietly married to Mrs. H. Louise Ewans, a widow of 60, who is very wealthy.

Colonel M. C. Russell will leave this afternoon for Louisville, where he goes to attend a meeting of the Directors of the Kentucky Wholesale Grocers' Association. The Southern Wholesale Grocers' Association will hold its annual session in Louisville this week.

Miss Susan Brown, daughter of Governor Brown, died at the Executive Mansion Saturday, after an illness of about six months. Miss Brown was the second daughter of the Governor, and was a highly accomplished and beautiful young woman. She had just passed her 35th birthday. Consumption was the cause.

A rooster, a rooster, a rich red rooster, upon my lady's breast,

Its peck is large, its claws are deep, its legs with green leaves spread.

'Tis rich with beauty, in color rare—Oh, what a combination!

'Tis mine she whose smile on me I see in adoration.

But the rose, the rose, the rich red rose, which glows on her gown of gray

Is very scarce this time of year—I cost my last week's pay.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEADER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White clouds—Fair; Blue—Rain or Snow; With Black above—Very Warm; If Black above—Cold or Snow; Unless Black shows—no change will be.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Sun says the A. P. A. is rapidly gaining membership at Ashland.

Councilman George C. Keith of this city is contracting for brick streets in Mobile, Ala.

There were eight received into full membership at the M. E. Church yesterday morning.

Born, to the wife of Mr. Will D. Sutherland of Escalapa Springs, a fine daughter, Marguerite Louise.

Hon. Samuel J. Pugh was in the city last night on route to Flemingsburg, where he will speak today.

Thomas Felton, formerly of this city, was badly hurt by falling from a telephone pole on which he was working at Cincinnati.

Mrs. Alex. Dougherty, formerly of Maysville, has sold her farm near Hooktown, Nicholas county, to Jesse Peaback for $70 per acre.

John Walsh, a young man employed at The Bulletin office, had several fingers badly mashed Saturday. They were caught in a job press.

The marriage of Miss Anna B. Darall and Mr. Harry C. McDougall of Lexington will occur in the Central Presbyterian Church November 7th.

The Senior Society of C. of the First Presbyterian Church requests a full attendance of the members at the church Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock sharp. Business of importance. Do not fail to come. EUGENE COLLINS, President.

Our friends the enemy had a speechifying Saturday evening at Dietrich's Park. In fact they had quite a lot of speechifying lately, which is pretty good evidence that they are uneasy. It is said that one of Saturday night's speakers told his hearers that part of the ticket would be defeated, but he didn't say what part.

Dr. J. T. Strobe, formerly of this city but now owner of many broad acres of knee-high bluegrass, will soon leave his farm in charge of his son, Gay Strobe, and locate in Lexington for the practice of his profession. The Doctor was a popular and highly successful practitioner in this city for several years, and The Leader takes pleasure in commending him to the people of Lexington.

Counselor James H. Salles and Counselor John L. Whitaker went out into a rural district to sing the praises of Democracy a few nights since. While they were descending upon the beautiful Free-trade cause was transposed the fore and aft wheels of their buggy, and they came bowling home with their vehicle in this whopper-jawed shape. The boys have ever since been enjoying innumerable laughs at its expense.

The musicale given by Miss Beattie Barnes at the Opera house Saturday evening was much enjoyed by those present. Miss Barnes possesses a remarkably fine contralto voice, and her expression is exceptionally clear and distinct. She was ably assisted by Mrs. Carl Best of Millersburg, who read several humorous selections; Miss Edna Hunter of Washington; Misses Louise and Elizabeth Best, Misses Gene and Gary Milan of this city, and Mr. Coffman of Covington. All these were most pleasing, and drew forth the approval of the audience in rounds of hearty applause, the character song of the Misses Milan coming in for a generous share of laughter. If Miss Barnes should conclude to give another entertainment, Ten Ladies' backs for her patronage commensurate with her merits as a singer.

Maquerade Ball at Washington Opera-house Thursday evening for the benefit of Washington Fire Company.

All members of the A. P. A. are requested to be present at Tuesday night's meeting, Business of Importance. By order of McGilly.

During the past seven days there were 233 business failures throughout the United States, as compared with 341 the corresponding week last year.

The Courier-Journal is replacing the old Mergenthaler linotypes in its composing room with the latest improved machines of that company.

One thing argued in favor of the new Constitution, when the people of Kentucky were debating on the advisability of adopting the crazy quilt, was that it would protect people who didn't know any better from voting appropriations to proposed railroads. After all the bluster and blow over that inhibition clause here comes Morgan county, which, at the November election, will vote on a proposition to subscribe $25,000 in aid of a road to be constructed through that county. The prohibitory clause against such things will be avoided by appropriating the money for the purpose of building bridges.

At Bennett's Mill, Greenup county, Edward Perry was found in Tygart creek drowned. About two weeks ago, while Perry was attending church at Plum Fork, he was called from the church by two strangers, and that was the last time he has been seen in the neighborhood, and continued search has been in progress ever since. Saturday as Henry Winters was "boating down the creek in a boat he found Perry's body hanging in the forks of a tree, where it had lodged. There was a large rock tied to the body, and the supposition is that he was murdered and thrown into the creek in order to conceal the crime.

Building Association Receipts. The receipts of the several Building Associations of this city Saturday night were as follows:

Mason County.....	$ 456 40
Limestone.....	297 90
People's.....	216 35
Total.....	$ 970 65

$25 Reward

will be paid for the return of a Dark Bay Mare, with a white star on forehead and white spot on right hand side of the neck, heavy mane and tail, and is 15½ hands high. The above described mare was stolen from my premises on the Clark's Run Turpentine near Fern Leaf, on the 16th of October. Please return to Mr. Charles Wallingford of Fern Leaf.

CHARLES PLEASANT.

N. B.—Two low heavy set white men, one having only one eye, were seen with a horse in the Fern Leaf neighborhood the night my mare was stolen and which is supposed to be my mare.

Election of Officers.

At the annual election of officers of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon the following were chosen:

President—Allan D. Cole.

Vice-Presidents—M. L. Lane, W. H. Cox, J. M. Scott, Dural, Peaback, J. W. Ashbury, W. D. Hixon, James Stewart.

Secretary—Harry C. Curran.

Treasurer—R. B. Russell.

The President, Secretary and Treasurer were constituted as a committee to secure leaders for each Sunday afternoon meeting. The annual budget was raised, and the Association is now in a better condition than it has been since its organization.

Now let all the old and young men attend the meetings of the Association.

CALLED HOME.

Mrs. J. H. Myers Dies Yesterday

Non at Flemingsburg.

Mrs. J. H. Myers, wife of Captain J. H. Myers of the Kentucky Central Railroad, whose serious illness with typhoid fever has been already reported in The Leader, passed away at the home of her brother, Mr. H. A. Kackley, in Flemingsburg at 12:15 p. m. yesterday.

Mrs. Myers was the only daughter of Dr. C. Kackley of this city.

A few weeks ago she left her home in this city for a visit to her brother, and while there was taken with her fatal illness.

Her condition became so serious that her husband and father were summoned, and they had been constantly at her side for some days.

Mrs. Myers was a lovely character, a true woman in the noblest sense, and her loss will be felt far beyond the family circle.

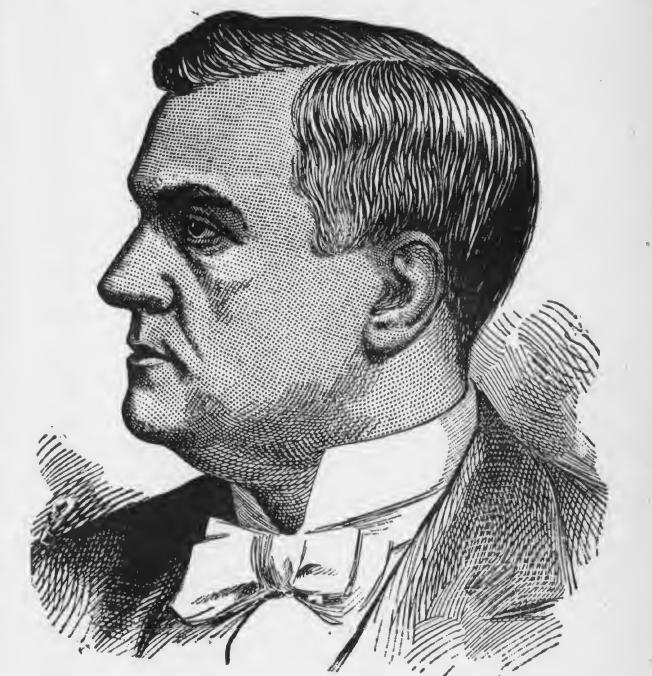

To the aged father and devoted husband will go out the tenderest sympathies of all who knew her.

The funeral will take place at Flemingsburg at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, interment in the Flemingsburg cemetery.

TREASURER OF NEW YORK STATE.

He Gives More Evidence of the Unequalled Worth of Paine's Celery Compound.

Mr. Colvin Had Suffered From a Nervous Complaint With Which Many Are Afflicted—He Tried the Remedy That Makes People Well, and His Experience Was Like That of Thousands of Others.

Mr. Colvin, the Treasurer of New York State, holds the highest position of purely financial responsibility to which it is possible for a citizen of this country to be elected.

In many respects the office is second only to that of the great United States official, whose Secretary himself has just publicly recommended Paine's Celery Compound.

Now there comes a letter of the same character from Treasurer Colvin.

In the history of the most remarkable remedy this century has yet seen the fact that the ablest and most influential persons in the country and the most progressive physicians were the first to perceive the extraordinary worth of Paine's Celery Compound is very significant.

The fact that today this remedy is more widely recommended by grateful people in every walk of life than all the other remedies in the world together is not astonishing. It makes people well!

There have appeared recently published testimonials of Mr. Carlisle's Private Secretary, of ex-Minister to Austria, Francis, of Mayor McShane of Montreal, of Miss Mabel Jenness, of President Cook of the National Teachers' Association, of General Macaulay and of scores of other equally responsible women and men.

The "plain people" by thousands in every state in the Union have testified to the merits of the Compound.

Hon. Addison B. Colvin, whose likeness is given above, who was elected Treasurer of New York State last fall, was born in 1858 in Glen Falls, N. Y., where he was educated in the Public Schools, and where he has since resided. His successful career is known to all well-informed persons.

Writing to the proprietors of Paine's Celery Compound on July 13th last he said:

"I beg to advise you that three or four years ago, when I was suffering severely with a nervous difficulty, caused by too close attention to business, I took several bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, and the benefit to me was considerable.

Colonel L. H. Williams of Ripley is growing as a probable candidate for Governor of Ohio.

Hattie Bernard Chase at the Opera-house tomorrow evening in a wonderful clever farce-comedy. She will be supported by a splendid company, and every thing will be first-class.

Mr. J. F. Curtis, Assistant State Secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association, died of typhoid fever at Lexington last week.

It is stated that over 800,000 logs are now in the Kentucky river awaiting the next rise. This is said to be the largest number on record for this time of year.

The Governor has offered $100 reward for the capture of William Johnson, charged with murder in Indiana county.

All Sisters of Friendship Lodge No. 48, D. of R., are requested to meet at the residence of Sister Schwartz this evening at 7 o'clock. Business of importance.

RANK LUTMAN, Secretary.

The annual Kentucky Chrysanthemum show will be held at Lexington November 6th, 7th and 8th.

A new enterprise at Lexington is the bottling and selling of pure water for drinking purposes.

The columns of THE LEADER are today largely occupied by enterprising advertisers. This shows that people who know how to advertise know also where to advertise.

Lexington is talking of having an exposition of the manufactured products of the Bluegrass Region.

Mrs. Barbara McFarland died at Lexington. She was the last living daughter of Mrs. John B. Houston.

George W. Armstrong, an old man who for years past has made and peddled butcher knives along the Ohio river, was drowned last week about two miles below Vanceburg on the Ohio side.
